RAIN DROWNED OUT ORPHEUM ACTORS

"Sherlock Holmes Under Difficulties" might well have been the title of the presentation put on by the Howard company at the New Orpheum last night, with a pantomime for a curtain raiser. The rain thundered on the playhouse roof so heavily and so persistently during the first act that no word of the dialogue found its way past the footlights, and the audience had to content itself with watching the lip movements and the "business," without an inkling of what the players were attempting to talk about. After the first act it was better, he rain having exhausted itself in the first big downpour. Fortunately everyone knows Sherlock Holmes and how he overcomes difficulties, consequently hints of the plot were given in the last four acts sufficient to put everyone next to what the villain was trying to do and how the great detective undertook to foil him.

In spite of difficulties the play was enjoyed by the large number who attended, regardless of the rain. Robert McKim, in the title role, scored a gratifying success and deserved more of the applause than was given him, sharing the honors with Miss Marion Dunn, who appeared as Madge Larabee. The cast was:

Madge Larabee.....Marion Dunn
Foreman.....Arthur Elton
James Larabee.....Charles Murphy
Theresa.....Dorcas Matthews
Sydney Prince.....James Norton
Alice Paulkner.....Betty Jenson
Sherlock Holmes.....Robert McKim
Professor Moriarty.....Guy Hittner
Alfred Bassick.....Arthur Elton
Billy.....Eva Martella
Doctor Watson.....Oliver Bailey
Jim Crane.....John Baxter
Lightfoot McTague.....George Sterling
Parsons.....Watson Ballentyne
Mrs. Smedley.....Marion Dunn
Sir Edward Leighton.....Geo. B. Howard

DUVAUCHELLE WANTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

After hoarding over money he unjustly received from the United States shipping commissioner's office, Eugene Duvauchelle was yesterday named in a warrant sworn to by Henry N. Almy, the commissioner, charging him with embezzlement. Duvauchelle, who was formerly a police officer, and who has been trying the rauding game on Maui at odd intervals, came down from the Valley Island after working before the mail on one of the American-Hawaiian freighters.

He was paid off at the shipping commissioner's office, $13.50 being due him, but by accident the clerk handed him $23.50. When the matter was called to Almy's attention, he decided to wait until Duvauchelle shipped again and take it out of his salary, but upon hearing that he was publicly blowing of it took legal steps.

He first went to the United States district attorney, who did not see a federal end to the matter, and a warrant was consequently sworn out before the police magistrate. It was not yet been served, as it is understood that the man is looking for hospital treatment, and he will be rearrested after he is released from the hospital.

SPRAINED ANKLE.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. When Chamberlain's Pain Balm is applied a cure may be effected in three or four days. This balm is one of the best and most remarkable preparations in use. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.
